Lenten Season

1934

St. Luke and The Epiphany

13th Street below Spruce

THE REV. THOMAS L. HARRIS

LENT is a season when, as it were, we take stock of ourselves and make a serious, systematic effort to deepen our spiritual life. Experience shows us the wisdom of making such an effort, and also the value of making the effort together.

What a great thing it would be not only for ourselves but for the parish and for the Kingdom of God, if, this Lent, we as a parish united in some such undertaking as this:

1. To be present in Church at least once every Sunday during Lent.
2. To follow some course of religious study. (See page 4.)
3. To give some regular time to our private devotions at home.

Sunday Services During Lent

MORNING, 11 o'clock

The Sermons on Sundays during Lent will be upon some of the public questions of the day. We are living in times of great stress and difficulty, but also of great opportunity. Does the Christian religion provide us with resources to meet our difficulties and the strength to use our opportunities? What has the Christian Church to offer us who live in revolutionary times?

Feb. 18. Caesar or God

"Render unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and to God the things that are God's."

Matthew 22: 21.

Feb. 25. Moral Man in an Immoral Society

"I cannot escape to the mountain lest evil overtake me, and I die."

Genesis 19: 19.

Mar. 4. Christianity and Violence

"The Kingdom of Heaven suffereth violence and the violent take it by force." Matthew 11: 12.

Mar. 11. The Challenge of Communism

"The Parable of the Laborers in the Vineyard." Matthew 20: 1-16.

Mar. 18. Towards a Christian Society

"Ye are come unto Mt Zion, and unto the city of the Living God." Hebrews 12: 22.

Mar. 25. The Bitter Salt of the Earth

"If the salt hath lost its savour, wherewith shall it be salted?"

Matthew 5: 13.

AFTERNOON, 4 o'clock

The general topic for the sermons at the afternoon services during Lent will be:

"The Creed of a Modern Christian"

In these days many who feel the need of religion find it difficult to formulate any definite beliefs or convictions. This course of sermons has in mind those for whom religious faith has been made difficult by modern thought.

Feb. 18. First Sunday in Lent

Selections from the first act of Parsifal (Richard Wagner).

Feb. 25. Second Sunday in Lent

Motet, "Hear My Prayer" (Mendelssohn). Florence L. Manning, soprano soloist.

Mar. 4. Third Sunday in Lent

THE CHORAL ART SOCIETY OF PHILADELPHIA
will present a service of Lenten music a cappella.

Mar. 11. Fourth Sunday in Lent

Selections from The Messiah (Handel)

Mar. 18. Passion Sunday

CONFIRMATION

Preacher: The Right Rev. Francis M. Taitt, Bishop of Pennsylvania.

Mar. 25. Palm Sunday

Selections from The St. Matthew Passion (J. Sebastian Bach). Special soloists and orchestra accompaniment.

Immediately after these afternoon services there will be a brief social period in the Parish House. All present at the service are cordially invited.

Daily Services During Lent

This Lent sees the experiment of holding daily services in St. Luke and The Epiphany at noontime. This experiment is made possible through the co-operation of the clergy in the parishes of St. James's and St. Mary's and others. It is to be hoped that the people of this parish (particularly those in the neighborhood) will give these united services their support.

Noonday Services, 12.05—12.30

TUESDAY—Holy Communion.

WEDNESDAY—A series of Addresses by the Rev. Joseph Fort Newton, D.D.

Sunday Services During Lent

MORNING, 11 o'clock

There is not the slightest use pretending that we believe as our fathers believed. Few of us can repeat the Creeds without a qualm; prayer seems an unnecessary and fruitless exercise; even God has become "a vague, oblong blur," instead of a living reality. On Sunday mornings the sermons will be devoted to these topics where the modern mind is so confused and uncertain.

March 10th. "The Futility of Prayer"

Prayer as asking, as self-justification, as the ascent of the mind to God.

March 17th. "Holiness or Happiness"

Which should man choose? The moral opposition between Science and Religion.

March 24th. "The Impossibility of Forgiveness"

"There's no good in crying over spilt milk." The law of cause and effect in the realm of morals. Sin cannot be forgiven.

March 31st. "The Uselessness of God"

Has man made God in his own image?

April 7th. "Is Sacrifice Effective?"

The meaning of Atonement and Redemption.

April 14th. "God leaves Man to his Fate"

"Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani."

AFTERNOON, 4 o'clock

March 10th.

Choral Litany with Procession.
Anthem, "Hospodi Pomilui" (Russian Litany) by S. V. Lvovsky.
